

Humanities Revision Guide

The majority of revision needs to be completed outside of school. The History Department will supplement students' revision with a Friday afternoon session each week focusing on that week's listed topic. This will take place in H7 between 3.10pm and 4.00pm.

This is in addition to revision at home not instead of it.

Revision Guides:

These are easily available on Amazon at around (£5.81 per book). They contain all the content for the course and practice exam questions for each exam.

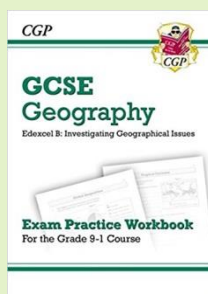

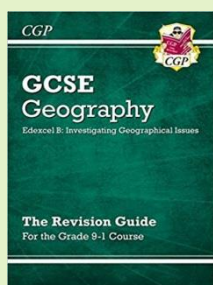

- Revise Edexcel GCSE (9-1) History Crime and Punishment in Britain
- Revise Edexcel GCSE (9-1) History Anglo-Saxon and Norman England
- Revise Edexcel GCSE (9-1) History Superpower Relations and the Cold War.
- Revise Edexcel GCSE (9-1) History Weimar and Nazi Germany

Electronic copies of the main sections in these books can be found on Google Classroom

Revision Guides and Support:

- Start using the resources on Google Classroom to revise Paper 1.
- Make revision cue cards for all of Paper 1:
 - Hazardous Earth
 - Development Dynamics
 - Challenges of an Urbanising World
- Have a go at some practice questions and bring to your class teacher to check.
- Consider purchasing a revision workbook / revision guide to help you with your notes.

Google Classroom

What does this offer me?

Electronic resources to help revise from. Updated regularly with new resources.

CODE: 3l6yj0

Additional Support Classes

Wednesday: Room H1- Exam Question Practice.

All welcome to attend to benefit from independent exam question practice

Philosophy & Ethics

All resources, revision guides and work done in class are available to our students on Google Classroom.

Our revision sessions are at Lunch Time on Thursdays.